

Mortality in Bradford City CCG

This Public Health Intelligence Bulletin provides a broad analysis of mortality data within Bradford City CCG.

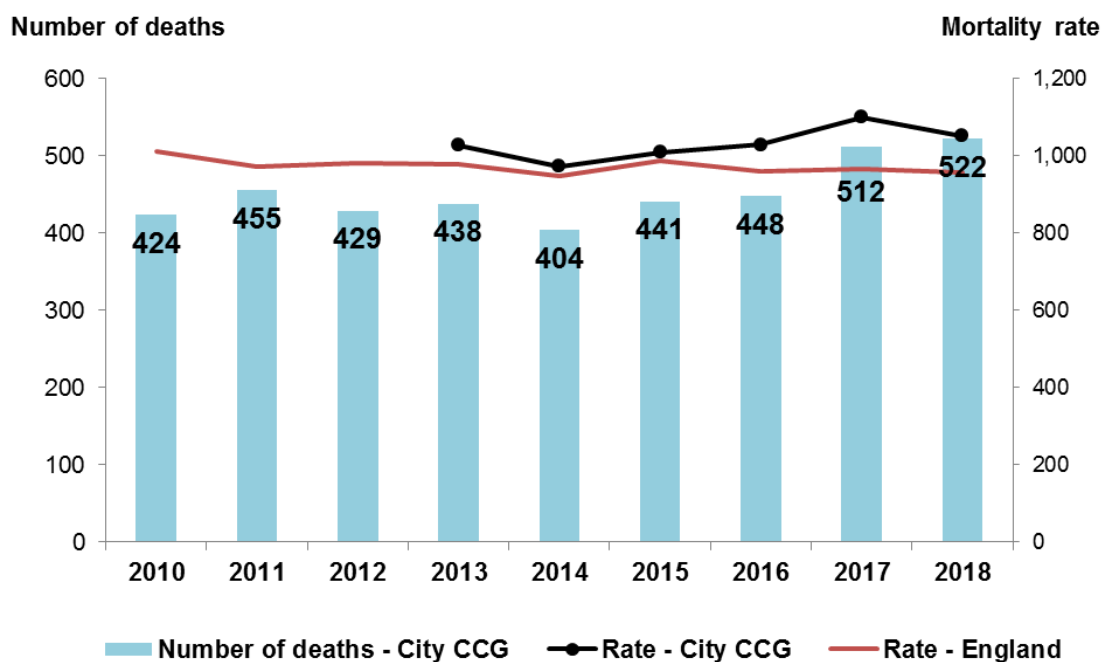

Summary

- There were 522 deaths in Bradford City CCG in 2018 – an increase since 2017
- The age standardised mortality rate in Bradford City CCG decreased in 2018 to 1,052 deaths per 100,000 population which is below regional average but remains above the national average
- In comparison to England & Wales a higher proportion of deaths are seen in males and females age 64 years and under
- Circulatory disease is the most common broad cause of death accounting for 27.4% of deaths within Bradford City CCG in 2018

Total Deaths

In 2018 within Bradford City CCG there were 522 deaths – 10 more than 2017. The annual age standardised mortality rate for Bradford City CCG for 2018 was 1,052 deaths per 100,000 population which is higher than both the regional average (1,031 deaths per 100,000 population) and national average (957 deaths per 100,000 population)

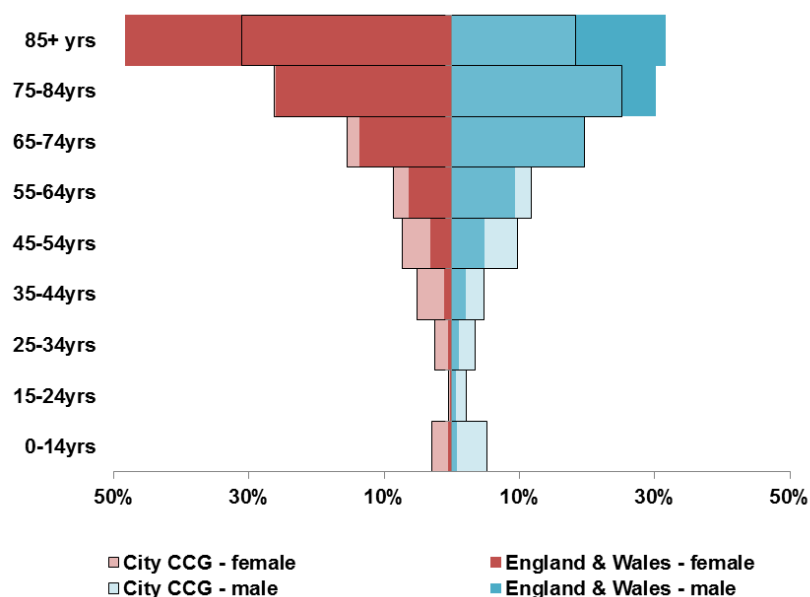

Figure 1: Total number of deaths and mortality rate for Bradford City CCG compared to mortality rate for England & Wales, 2010-18

Age & Gender

32.6% of all mortalities in Bradford City CCG occurred in those aged 64 years and under compared to 15.3% in England & Wales. Consequently there were a lower proportion of deaths in Bradford City CCG in those aged 85 years and over compared to England & Wales. Although this pattern is true for both males and females, it is important to note that there was a higher proportion of female deaths in ages 85 years and above than males (31.0% vs. 18.3%).

Figure 2: Proportion of deaths by age and gender, 2018

Cause of death

In 2018 circulatory disease is the leading main broad cause of death in Bradford City CCG accounting for 27.4% of mortalities. This is followed by cancer which contributes to 24.1% of deaths within the CCG. This differs from England & Wales where 27.7% of deaths were due to cancer followed by 24.4% of deaths due to circulatory disease. The proportion of deaths due to dementia in Bradford City CCG has increased in 2018 to 6.7%, which is lower than average for all three CCGs within the district.

Figure 3: Cause of Death in Bradford City CCG, 2018

